

I see positive changes in both boys when they return home after camp. They take such pride in belonging to TP.

GEORGE / PARENT

DO MORE WITH YOUR SUMMER.

Unplug from your typical life at home and embark on your own adventure! The Towering Pines campus is the perfect place to do just that.

The product of four generations of educators, our unique approach to skill development builds with every week spent at camp. Go all-in with our most popular six-week adventure or break it down to a two or four-week introduction.

This camp is attended by children all over the world. My children have made friends from Ohio to Mexico and Hong Kong.

NOREEN / PARENT

One hundred boys, ages 7-16, from all over the world gather around the campfire. The scent of pine and lakes drifts through your cabin windows. The sound of a gentle rain lulls you to sleep at night. The joys of summer live in Northern Wisconsin at Towering Pines Camp.

Reserve your place today!

toweringpinescamp.com

Or call (847) 446-7311 to learn more.

Acclimate

YOUR ADVENTURE STARTS HERE

Ease into the summer during your first two weeks at camp. Meet your cabin mates — who are in the same year of school as you — and the team of counselors who will guide you.

You will select your own schedule every two weeks. Whether it's tennis, horseback riding, or any one of our dozens of activities and workshops, you will have lots of opportunities to explore your interests and pursue your goals.

Time goes by quickly here! Be sure to slow down and enjoy each moment in the Northwoods. Hike to the moss garden and learn about the natural wetlands. Build cabin unity on a canoe camping trip. Elect a cabin chief to represent your group's ideals. Then, hold on tight! The summer is just getting started!

BROTHER & SISTER CAMPS

Towering Pines Camp is the brother camp of Camp Woodland for Girls, located a few miles away. Though their programs are separate, brothers and sisters share a common camp experience with several opportunities to see one another throughout the summer.

Accelerate

CHALLENGE YOURSELF TO EXCEL

Now that you've laid down some roots and feel at home, it is time to try something new and build on the accomplishments you have made so far. Are you excited about sailing across the shimmering waves of Lake Nokomis? You may find yourself commanding a vessel of your own during the third or fourth week and earning a pirate name worthy of your prowess on the high seas.

Weekly special events break up the normal routine. Search for buried treasure and fire a real cannon on Pirate Day. Dispatch your scouts out to hunt for gold while your cabin puzzles out the location of the Mother Lode during Gold Rush. Cook flapjacks and learn to use traditional lumberjack gear during Paul Bunyan Day.

Special events encourage teamwork and foster the collaboration required for a diverse group of boys to live together for an extended period of time. With the help of your counselors, you will build trust by doing your part and relying on your friends to do the same.

George had a tremendous summer and has been telling all his friends about it. I love who he is when he comes back from camp.

PRESLEY / PARENT

Celebrate

TELL YOUR SUCCESS STORY

During the final two weeks, you will accomplish more than you ever imagined possible. Having done more with your summer, you will feel a newfound sense of self-assurance and character. It is more than just riding in a cavalry charge at the horse show. It's about learning to care for the horses, feeding and tending to them. It goes beyond being able to jump the wake in the ski show; that skill on skis reflects your hard work and dedication. By the end of your summer adventure you will have a stronger sense of who you are and what you are capable of.

We received a much more confident boy.

JESSICA / PARENT

Towering Pines is more than a summer well spent; it's a new home. Your cabin mates and counselors are more than friends; they are brothers. Celebrate everything you have accomplished and everything that you have to look forward to, summer after summer.

A summer at Towering Pines is the start of a story all your own. Let us help you tell it.

Towering Pines Camp for boys

It was the leadership, values, and skill that I learned that helped me succeed at West Point and lead an infantry platoon through combat.

BIX / ALUMNUS

